COLLECTION OF CTL DECISIONS

Standard: IEC 61010-1:1990 +A1:1992 + A2 :1995	Sub clause: 5.1.2	Sheet n. 362 Page 1(1)
Subject: Identification	Key words: - Manufacturer's name - Trade mark - Agent/Supplier	Decision taken by ETF3 and confirmed by CTL at its 38th meeting, in Toronto

Question:

Manufacturer's name or registered trade mark. Is manufacturer's agent/supplier name acceptable as an alternative for identification?

Decision:

In the absence of a definition for "manufacturer" in IEC61010-1, it was decided that only manufacturer's name is acceptable under this sub-clause.

Explanatory Notes:

It should be noted that in the 2nd edition of IEC61010-1, under sub-clause 5.1.2 - Identification, name or trade mark of the manufacturer or supplier is an acceptable identification marking.
